THE FESTIVAL'S REGULATIONS

The International Film Festival "Autumn in Voronet", the 35th edition, will be held in the European town of Gura Humorului, Romania, between 14 – 16 October, 2016

The International Film Festival "Autumn in Voronet" is first of all a competition, an event ment to promote documentary films, video productions and audio-visual communication culture.

The Festival's aim is to foster the film schools' creativity, authority and professionalism in the domain, as well as to encourage contacts among different generations of film makers and embolden young film producers.

THE FESTIVAL'S SECTIONS

The Festival's programme contains three sections in the official competition:

- Documentary film section – short and medium feature film
- College production film section - short film (documentary, fiction, experimental film etc)
- Tourist travel theme film section - short film

The Festival will include other events, outside the official competition, such as preview screenings of feature length films, portraits of well-known personalities of Romanian cinematography, projections of patrimonial films from the national archive, a caravan to promote the Romanian film, workshops, exhibitions of visual arts, book launches, conferences, concerts, etc.

THE JURY OF THE FESTIVAL

- The organisers would nominate one jury from well-known film art personalities (script writers, producers, critics, cinematographers, etc.) to preselect the film entries for the festival

- The organisers would nominate another jury from well-known film art personalities (script writers, producers, critics, cinematographers, etc.) to nominate the rewarded films.
- The jury takes full responsibility for awarding or not awarding or redistributing the prizes
- The jury has the responsibility to decide which films can be awarded prizes by sponsors, associations, mass-media, institutions, trading companies, private persons etc, with their full agreement.
